

Ultrasound Training Center (UTC)

Dhulikhel Hospital Kathmandu University Hospital

Guidelines- Rules of the Procedures

1. Ultrasound Training Center (UTC) for Nepal accredited to the Dhulikhel Hospital , Kathmandu University Hospital.
2. Goal: Training of doctors, midwives, paramedics, nurses, physician assistanz, x-ray assistants, students.
3. Creation of a Training Curricula in accordance with the state guidelines in Nepal.
4. Education: Sufficient numbers of USG-Courses for basic education and in addition special courses.
5. Responsible management is at the head of the radiologist department. The chief medical officer is his representative. An advisory board (representative of clinical departments active in US education: e.g., gynecology, emergency, internal medicin, surgery, community department and one from administration). The chairman and the advisory board meet at least twice a year. Decisions are made together, with equal voting rights. Short protocols must be created, written by the secretary (community department).
6. Organization of the courses and administrative work is undertaken by a coordinator (community department). He (she) prepares half-yearly reports. These reports are made available internally to all participants in the UTC and to the hospital management.
7. Advertising and public announcement for ultrasound courses.

8. Link (Ultrasound Training Center, UTC) on the website of Dhulikhel Hospital. All ultrasound courses will be advertised there early.
9. Cooperation with the DEGUM (German society of Ultrasound in Medicin) and other ultrasound societies (e.g. DEGUM, G; SGUM, CH; ÖGUM, A)

Prof. Ram KM Shrestha
Vice Chancellor
Kathmandu University

Dr. Ramesh Makaju
Administrative Director
Dhulikhel Hospital

Dr. Subindra Karki
Radiology
Department